WELCOME VISITORS

We are honored by your presence this morning. We would love for you to record your attendance on the Friendship Pad when it is passed to you and provide information so that we can contact you further.

ENTER TO WORSHIP

This is a holy hour. We invite you to enter this sanctuary with joy and reverence. We invite members and visitors to be seated near the front of the sanctuary to enhance our sense of community in worship. When you have taken your seat, spend a few moments in quiet reflection as you prepare your heart for worship. If the service has already begun, please enter quietly by one of the side aisles. Please remember to silence your cell phone.

RESOURCES FOR HEARING IMPAIRMENT

Hearing assistance devices are available for those who have such need. Please see an usher for more information.

BECOME A MEMBER OF HBBC

Those who desire to join our church may come forward to where the pastor is standing during the Hymn of Commitment. If you would like to meet with a minister before making this decision, any of our ministers would be happy to answer your questions.

ABOUT TODAY’S WORSHIP

The sanctuary flowers today are given by David and Anita Hester in appreciation of the first responders to the recent hurricanes and as encouragement to those whose lives have been so greatly affected by the storms.

Louisa Monroe Ward: After serving as Music Intern at HBBC from 2009-2011, Louisa completed her Master of Divinity at Campbell University Divinity School in May 2014. In June 2014 she was called as the Associate Campus Minister at Campbell University where she ministers and works today. In 2015 Louisa was ordained and married her husband, Tyler. Tyler is a minister at Forest Hills Baptist Church, Raleigh. Louisa and Tyler live in Fuquay-Varina.

Calvin Carter: After serving for one year as a choral scholar at HBBC, Calvin spent one year as music intern at Wake Forest Baptist Church. He is a graduate assistant for admissions in the Pharmacy School at Campbell while continuing his Divinity School degree work. He is a member of the North Carolina Master Chorale and enjoys singing and worshiping with his extended church families and friends during his free time.

Carter Benge: Carter spent two years as a music intern at HBBC and is in his last semester at Campbell Divinity School. As a resident chaplain at Campbell, Carter provides spiritual and physical care and guidance to undergrad students on campus. He also enjoys playing the organ, training for marathons, and coaching the Harnett Central High School Cross-Country team. His own recent success as a runner includes participation in the Boston Marathon where he crossed the finish line at 3 hours, 57 seconds, the fastest time of any Cape Fear region competitor.

Jackson Adamah: Jackson is an international student from Ghana, West Africa. Jackson felt the call to ministry while living in Ghana. His internet search led him to Campbell University Divinity School. He had never been to America, had never flown in an airplane, and did not know anyone in North Carolina. When Jackson arrived in Buies Creek, he had just enough money to pay for his required health insurance. He did not have extra money for food, books, or living expense, but he was confident in God’s call and provision. Jackson completed his Master of Divinity degree at Campbell last Spring and is currently pursuing his Master of Theology (ThM) degree at Duke Divinity School. He plans to pursue a PhD in African Theology in preparation to serve the church as a theologian. He is happily married to Angela and they celebrated their third wedding anniversary this summer.
